12 DAYS OF GREECE!

There's a funny old Greek tale for potential visitors that: When God was determining the countries of earth, the Greeks were out eating, drinking and enjoying their festivities. Upon their return they discovered that God had forgotten them as they weren't around.

God then said, "Well there was this little vacation spot I was saving..." AUTHENTIC GREEK

That's how Greece was formed. A Greek man told us that!
